

Giovanni Immordino

Current Position

Associate Professor of Economics, Università di Salerno, Italy
Research Fellow, (CSEF)

Research Interests

Microeconomics, Economics of Uncertainty and Information

Academic Background and Work Experience

2002: Assistant Professor University of Salerno

2000-2002: Carisal Fellow

1999: Ph.D. in Economics, University of Toulouse, France

1996: Diplôme Européen d'Economie Quantitative Approfondie University of Toulouse, France

1995: D.E.A. en Mathématiques, Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium

1994: Master of Arts in Economics, Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium

1992: B.A. in Economics, University of Palermo, Italy; final mark: summa cum laude

Address for correspondence

CSEF- Department of Economics

Università di Salerno

84084 Fisciano (SA), Italy

ph.: +39089963165

fax: +39089963169

e-mail: giimmo@tin.it

Research

Publications in Refereed Journals

- “Payoff dependence of comparative statics results on information structure”, Economics Letters 63 (1999) 351-354
- “Self-Protection, Information and the Precautionary Principle”, Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance Theory, 25 (2000) 179-187
- “Organismi geneticamente modificati ed incertezza scientifica: una prospettiva internazionale”, (with G. Calzolari), Mercati Concorrenza e Regole, n.2 agosto, (2001) 319-335
- “Looking for a guide to protect the environment: the development of the Precautionary Principle”, Journal of Economic Surveys, 17 (5) (2003) 629-643
- “The cost of rights: an economic analysis”, (with M. Pagano), Diritto e Questioni Pubbliche,

- n.4 dicembre (2004) <http://www.dirittoequestionipubbliche.org/>
- “Hormone beef, chlorinated chicken and international trade”, (with G. Calzolari), European Economic Review, 49 (2005) 145-172
- “Uncertainty and the cost of reversal”, The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review, 30 (2005) 119.128

Working Papers /Work in Progress

- “Choosing between traditional and innovative technologies: the case of scientific uncertainty”, CSEF working paper n.74, (2001)
- “Fairness, NGO activism and the welfare of the less developed countries” CSEF working paper n.101, (2003)
- “Optimal regulation of auditing”, (with M. Pagano), CSEF working paper n.133, (2007)
- “How diagnostic tests affect prevention :a cost benefit analysis”, (with L. Eeckhoudt and C. Gollier), CSEF working paper n.53, (2001)
- “No Logo”, CSEF woking paper n.77, (2002)
- “Design and Enforcement of Legal Standars”, (with M. Pagano), CSEF woking paper n.98, (2003)
- “Norms flexibility and private initiative”, (with M. Pagano and M. Polo), CSEF woking paper n.163, (2006)
- “Advertising and cost reduction”, (2007)
- “Discounting and expropriation risk”, (with M. Padula), (2007)
- “Corporate governance, fraud and auditing”, (with M. Pagano), (2007)

Honors

2001: Invited speaker at the European Winter Meeting of the Econometric Society, Venice, Italy

2000: The “2000 Young Economist Award” assigned to “Hormone Beefs, Chloridric Chickens and International Trade: Can Scientific Uncertainty Be an Informational Barrier to Trade?”, by the European Economic Association

2000: Three-year Fellowship for research, awarded by CARISAL

1999: 3-month Fellowship for research, awarded by Ente Einaudi

1995: Three-year Fellowship for graduate studies, awarded by the Italian Ministry of Research

1994: 9-month Fellowship for graduate studies abroad, University of Palermo

1993: One-year Fellowship for graduate studies abroad, CERISDI, Italy