TRANSPORT

Upon arrival at Naples International Airport - Capodichino, participants should take a taxi to reach either Molo Beverello (next to the main harbor) or the pier of Mergellina (next to the Mergellina tourist harbor).

Taxi in Naples: Approx. cost € 20.00 Time 25-35 minutes Distance kms 12 kms

Both Molo Beverello or Mergellina are points of departure of hydrofoils from Naples to Capri. Instead, ferries from Naples to Capri depart only from Molo Beverello. Taking a ferry is advisable with rough sea conditions, since they are more stable than hydrofoils.

Upon arriving in Capri, participants can reach their hotel in Anacapri by taxi (from Marina Grande to the hotel) or public transportation (see below).

Taxi in Capri: Approx. cost € 15-20.00 Time 20-30 minutes Distance kms 10 kms

From their hotel in Anacapri, participants will reach the conference venue on foot (most streets in Anacapri are for pedestrians only). The conference venue is 5 to 10 minutes away from both hotels.

FURTHER INFORMATION

GEOGRAPHICAL NOTES

The Island of Capri lies to the South of the Bay of Naples between the parallels 40°30'40" and 40°16'48" North and the meridians 14° 11'54" and 14°16'19" East of Greenwich.

The island has a perimeter of approximately 17 Km and a total area of about 1.036 hectares, it is 6,7 Km long and its width varies between 2.7 Km and 1.2 Km. The highest point is Mount Solaro (589 meters).

There are two small towns: Capri and Anacapri. About 8000 people live in Capri and 7000 in Anacapri. The town of Capri is located on the eastern side of the island, Marina Grande - the port - to the North and Marina Piccola to the South. Anacapri is on the western side of the island and is separated from Capri town by the imposing slopes of Mount Solaro

The climate of Capri is typically Mediterranean. The temperature varies from 10 C in February - the coldest month - to 28 C in August. Spring and Autumn are the milder seasons during which it is certainly more pleasant to visit the island.

ON ARRIVAL AT THE PORT IN CAPRI

Having landed at Marina Grande, the simplest way to reach Anacapri is by taxi. The fare is about 15 euro. You can also use the public bus service, but direct buses from Marina Grande to Anacapri are not very frequent. The ticket costs 1.30 euro.

Alternatively, you can follow a more indirect route. You can reach the famous "Piazzetta" di Capri in ten minutes, by taxi (the fare is about 10-12 euro) or in 5 minutes by funicular (the ticket costs 1.30 euro). Once in Capri, you can take a public bus to Anacapri (another 1.30 euro). These buses leave every 15 minutes.

If you have luggage, remember that all the hotels offer and charge for a transport service from the port. Ask the hotel representatives at the port and they will look after your luggage and send it to your hotel. This is the most economical and least tiring solution to avoid a "heavy" impact with Capri.
